- This is one of the rarest of the West Virginia Soldiers' Medals. At the Parmelee Sale, June 1873, (No. 75,) one of a more common variety sold for $11.75; one at the Stenz Sale, 1875, (No. 1455,) for $12.00, and one at Fewsmith's Sale for a similar price. This is apparently the third kind, of those provided for by the State Resolution, for officers and soldiers dying from wounds received in battle; it has not before been described, and is so far as I know the first yet offered at auction. See Journal of Numismatics, Vol. X, p. 79, and XI. p. 96.
- 20 17 Winfield Scott Medal, by Quilfeldt and Lebreton. Portrait. No legend. R April 19, 1775. Liberty — April 19, 1861, Union. All hail to the Stars and Stripes, &c. Tin, silver-plated, fine, very rare. 40
